To write detailed steps for instructions.

| BASICS  | EFFECT  | PRESENTATION  |
|--|---|---|
| Title Sub-headings | Can you add more adverbs to describe verbs?  | Have you shown chronological order with time adverbs? First... Next... A few minutes later... After that... Eventually... Finally... After... Before... As soon as, once...  |
| Introduction. Have you introduced your recipe? Add a list of ingredients | Have you extended some of your sentences with conjunctions? If ... When ... Before ... Once ... Although ... As soon as because ... but ... unless ... until ... so that ... even if ...   | Read each sentence again. Does each sentence start with a capital letter? Does each sentence end with a full stop?  |
| Are your verbs imperative and straight to the point?   Mix ... ! Add ... ! Wash ... ! Cut ... ! Slice ... ! Add ...  | Adjectives Have you used adjectives to describe your cake/sandwich? | Finally, have you presented your work with pride making it the BEST you can?   |

Monday: Decide what you are going to make...maybe a cake? Some cupcakes? A sandwich? Some toast? Create a heading for your project. Then create a subheading and write a list of the ingredients that you will need.

Tuesday: Make your delicious creation! If you can, take some photos.

Wednesday: Start to write your instructions. What did you do? Remember to look at the success criteria above. Tick off the brilliant things you are using in your writing.

Thursday: Finish writing your instructions. Are you using imperative (bossy) verbs?

Friday: Edit and improve. Do you need to use more adjectives to add description? Can you add more adverbs to show how you mixed/chopped/sliced? Is your presentation the best it can be?

And remember...joined handwriting ALL THE TIME!
