What do you think when you look at this picture?

How does it make you feel?

What would this place look like without all of the rubbish?

What do you think it will look like in 10 years time?

Could you enjoy a walk on this beach?

Will this rubbish harm any birds, fish or animals? How could it harm them?

What should we do about this?