

English tasks for home learning

Write a biography!	Choose an interesting person, they may be famous or a family member, and write a short biography for them. Remember to use: The third person The past tense Important facts and dates Chronological order
Use fronted adverbials!	Use this BBC website to learn about fronted adverbials. What is a fronted adverbial? - BBC Bitesize Adverbs describe a verb. Fronted adverbials also describe the verb but go at the start of the sentence. Eg. Quietly , the girl opened the door. Without hesitation , the dog jumped in the pond. Write 10 sentences that start with a fronted adverbial. Try to make each one different and remember, they can be a single word (Loudly, quickly, cautiously) or a phrase (Heart beating wildly, holding his breath)
Research the sub- prefix!	Our spellings this week all contain the sub- prefix. Use a dictionary or the internet to find as many sub- words as you can. Can you write a short story that contains at least 8 sub- words?
Write in paragraphs!	We use paragraphs to help us organise our writing. Pick a topic of your choice and write 2 separate paragraphs. For example, if you choose to write about bees, you may write 1 paragraph about how they make honey and another on why they are important for the environment. Watch this video to help you. What are paragraphs? - BBC Bitesize
Free write!	Use this literacy session to write something you feel excited about.... A recipe Instructions on how to play your favourite game A comic book A play script A letter (why not post it afterwards!)
