one winters night lilly sat bored in her warm cosy sofa watching her brother playing nedio games. then Lilly wanted to see if there was a full moon so she did. when she peeked through her telescope she saw the glowing silvery moon. As she looked closer, she saw something she had never seen before, it was a old man.

Lilly stared longingly at the silver moon. Meanwhile, the old man sat crunched up on the moons surface hoping that there was someone in space to talk with.

Exitedly, as fast as a cheeta Lilly raced back home from a long and tiring day at school. Lilly also felt electrified because she had the best idea and she was sure it would make the old man smile. But none of her family knew she had this amazing idea.

Meanwhile, the old man sat on the grey solitary moon. As time flew the old man grew more desolate and did ① one night the old man came out of his little house and saw the most glowing earth ever. The next day the old man was smiling a little because it was new years eve. But he was a little bit sad he had to celebrate new years eve on his own. But he knew he would have fun.

When dark fell, Lilly sat in her warm, cosy car staring at the isolated, glowing moon. Then she started imagining all kinds of wonderful, amazing things but the moon was to far and her ideas would not work. The cat was nearly home and Lilly sat worried, soaked by her car trying to think of something quick would she ever find a way?

When Lilly arrived home from a long journey she finally had a brilliant, amazing idea. She rapidly speedily dived the ① stairs. Lilly rushed to open the door and immediately started to make a beautiful cake. She tried and tried for hours non stop but nothing worked. Then she said to her tired self how do I help the isolated old man?

When the isolated old man sat on the bench clutched up he saw the glowing distant earth. Then suddenly he saw the most amazing thing he had ever seen crashing on the moons surface. Where had it come from? When the dazzling present arrived in the hands of the old man he started to cry of happiness. The isolated old man could not take his eyes off the beautiful present and asked his self is this present for me? happiness consumed him and his face lit up.

Lilly joyfully, electrified skiped down the stairs and saw all her family gathered round in a dazzling room. When Lilly looked at the Christmas tree she saw golden, shining decorations on the Christmas tree. When Lilly looked under the christmas tree she saw cowerfull, glittery presents Lilly was amazed. She loved seeing her family dancing to the beat. She also loved it when the beautifull, calm music filled Lilly from top to bottom.

Lily smelled at the delicious appetizing food that was in the kitchen getting cooked.

When Lily's face lit up with excitement, Lily said to her self "I've got the perfect idea." Then one night Lily sneakily got her mom's phone and called a company that made rockets. She asked if they could make a rocket for her. They said yes. Lily was so excited. She couldn't sleep that night. That day when the company arrived they started right away. They said they would take a week to build a rocket. When the rocket was done they were very pleased. The next day Lily asked her dad how to drive a rocket so her dad gave her some instructions. Lily was very happy then Lily started to drive her rocket. When Lily arrived at the moon she said to the isolated old man "come with me I'll make you a better life on Earth". The isolated old man was so pleased and happy so he said "yes".
