

VENOMTOOTH

“She has completely GONE!” exclaimed Briya Olwyn as she ran (avoiding all the other students) up to her friend Esmerelda Spellmon. Briya Olwyn went to Professor Nightwing’s School of Witchcraft, she had been there for as long as she could remember, as it was a boarding school. The school was an old mossy place, but everyone got used to the creaking floorboards, old stairs, and mossy walls after a while; anyway, it was a school for witches!

“Really? How did whatever take her get in?” said Esmerelda, shocked.

“I don’t know! Maybe it got in another way other than the door?!”

Esmerelda and Briya were (as most students were) talking about how Professor Nightwing, their headmistress, had been captured by something last night and nobody had seen her since. Nobody knew what it was, but they all knew it was dangerous!

Briya and Esmerelda were in their fifth year; they were both ten. Briya had pretty, silky, honey coloured hair which she normally wore up in a bun with a few curls loose, but sometimes had her hair down, so it nearly reached the middle of her back. Her eyes were dark blue with brown flecks, she had pale smooth skin with no freckles. Esmerelda had lovely, straight, dark red hair that she barely ever put up, she had beautiful green eyes and just a few freckles which you could just about see. Esmerelda and Briya were about the same height but Briya was a bit taller. They were the best of friends and were always nice to each other, except the time Esmerelda accidentally did a spell which made Briya stand on her hands without falling but luckily it wore off after but she still felt dizzy and when it finally wore off Briya fell (accidentally of course) on top of Esmerelda, but except from that they were always nice to each other.

Esmerelda and Briya quickly went to Briya's room, with Esmerelda's and Briya's owls on their shoulders.

"What are we going to do?" asked Esmerelda, thinking about their headmistress.

"Hmm... We should save Professor Nightwing!" exclaimed Briya excitedly.

"Are you crazy! That's way too dangerous Briya."

"No, we can go tonight! We will meet in your bedroom at midnight!" Exclaimed Briya.

"Fine" replied Esmerelda.

As soon as the clock turned midnight Briya went tiptoeing down to Esmerelda's room,

"Psst Esmerelda c'mon we've got to go!" whispered Briya

“I’m coming, I’m coming! Light the candle, I can’t see you Briya.” Whispered Esmerelda.

Briya lit the candle with her wand, Briya had always been good at magic and she brought her wand nearly everywhere with her. Esmerelda was not quite as good at Briya though.

“Okay, have you got your wand?” Whispered Briya excitedly, “I’ll get it now.”

The two girls went quietly out of the room trying not to wake anyone. As they reached the huge front door they looked to see if anyone was watching them, no one was. As they opened the front door there was a loud creak, the girls again turned to see if anyone was there and then tiptoed, arm in arm, out of Professor Nightwing’s School for Witchcraft. Suddenly they heard a noise in the bush.

“Shhhh,” whispered Briya putting a finger to her lips, then out of the bush came a rather prickly hedgehog! Esmerelda giggled. They carried on walking and it grew very dark!

About an hour later they came to a big lake, Briya looked disappointed at the sight of it.

“Look there,” Esmerelda nearly shouted.

“there’s a-a-a monster!” she said again.

“Don’t be silly there’s nothing down there.” Replied Briya.

Suddenly she spotted a great big snake with pointy fangs and screamed!

“AAAH!”

“I told you Briya! Do you think that’s what took Professor Nightwing?!” Asked Esmerelda still shocked,

“Well I don’t see what else could’ve took her!” Briya replied!

The girls finally decided to go down the cave to try kill the snake, as they reached the bottom of the cave they saw the snake again and realised that it had to be the snake they had read about in their books- it was called venomtooth because its fangs were venomous. They each looked at each other and thought of a plan.

“You will have to go round and grab its neck.” whispered Briya.

“I can’t” replied Esmerelda looking at the snake’s huge, scaly neck.

“Yes, you can, I believe in you!” Briya replied.

“And I will set in on fire and then you must run straight away to find Professor Nightwing! Ok?” said Briya, looking at the snake,

“On the count of three we will do what I just said” exclaimed Briya. Esmerelda nodded.

“Three two one! NOW”

Esmerelda ran round the snake and grabbed on to its neck and it hissed loudly, then Briya grabbed her wand and in no more than two seconds she had lit a fire on the huge snake! It hissed even louder, then Esmerelda ran to get Professor Nightwing whilst Briya carried on fighting the snake. About five minutes after Briya had already killed the horrible snake and Esmerelda was just coming back with Professor Nightwing.

“Girls what you did was absolutely amazing!” Professor Nightwing looked amazed and happy at the same time.

“Thanks!” Esmerelda and Briya replied. As they walked back to the school, they told Professor Nightwing about their amazing adventure and she was amazed with it all as they got back to the school everyone was looking out there windows and cheering loudly at Briya and Esmerelda, all their friends wanted to know everything about their adventure and how they saved Professor Nightwing. They were also awarded a certificate and a badge; it was all very exciting and they couldn’t wait for another adventure. They told nearly the whole school about there adventure because everyone wanted to know what had happened and if they were scared and so on.

“I can’t wait for another adventure Esmerelda!”

“Me too I hope we have another one!”

THE END
