

Inverted commas

Task:

"Make a tiny poster to show rules for speech punctuation," instructed the teacher.

"We can do that!" shouted the year 6 students, "No problem!" "Remember capital letters," he called as they disappeared into the distance. There was no reply.

Rules:

- New person /new line
- Inverted commas for the words spoken
- Commas to link speech words with the rest of the sentence

Who can create the most informative, creative and interesting tiny poster?! Send us in your posters!
