

What is a prologue? When is the prologue set?

When di Pa first tell me the story of the Wyrms and the Stones?

Why was Magda so excited?

What did they go to visit at the top of the cliff?

In dad's story, what is the name of the boat? See if you can find out what this means and decide if you think it is a good name for a boat.

How did the girls try to help their fathers to return to the right part of the coast and see the cliff through the fog?

What did the girls do differently on the fourth evening?

What was the subject of the song the girls sang?

According to the story, what was the Wyrms?

How was the Wyrms affected by the girls' song?

What happened to the girls in the story?

The Wyrms took their souls and turned them in to stone.

How does Dad tell the story to make it exciting?