This Week

We have continued our story-telling this week, with the children innovating their own versions of 'The Fox and the Star'. They have been adding new characters in the tale, thinking about different animals that Fox might meet in the forest at night.

After talking about woodland habitats around Ely, we have been discussing river habitats and the wildlife that we might see on a walk by Ely river. Everyone has been very interested to find out about eels and a highlight has been exploring Ely Museum's Fenland artefacts, especially the costumes! Take a look on Tapestry for pictures. We will be continuing our work on this theme next week. If you have any photos of your child at Ely river, taking part in Ely Eel Festival, or exploring the Eel Trail, please put them on Tapestry to be shared at news time. Thank you.

In our maths, we have been finding out about money. We have been looking at different coins, comparing their shapes and colours and learning about their different values.

Our Poetry Basket this week is Under a Stone.
