

My paradise

My paradise is slowly striding along in the shallow, cool Red sea beneath the warm bright sun.

My paradise is the super-whoop of joy you get when you win a close thrilling game.

My paradise is deservedly and joyfully catching and cooking a fish on a warm campfire.

My paradise is watching multicoloured leaves gracefully fall down from cold autumn trees.

My paradise is joining my friends on a crazy adventure.

My paradise is zooming down my brother's slide upside down.

And... my paradise is watching, waiting and experiencing the path in which I am destined to take.

Prithvi Chandrasekar

