

Date _____

Name _____

Adverbs

Indicating degrees of possibility using adverbs.

clearly certainly undoubtedly perhaps definitely possibly

maybe probably

Select the adverb that fits best into each sentence.

Dan's mum _____ thought that he should get some fresh air.

Dan agreed that he could _____ do with some air.

His mum could _____ see that he was absorbed in the game.

He agreed that he would _____ go outside in five minutes.

He was going to see his friend Fred who would _____ love to see him.

_____, mums are sometimes right.

_____ he would try to get outside a bit more often.

Challenge: Write a paragraph about your plans for the future. Use as many adverbs as possible to indicate the likelihood of each event or plan. Underline or highlight the adverbs that you used.

Year 5 Answers

In some questions, alternative answers may be acceptable. The likeliest answers are given below. If questions have more than one answer, teachers should use their own judgement when marking.

5e

Dan's mum definitely thought that he should get some fresh air.

Dan agreed that he could possibly do with some air.

His mum could clearly see that he was absorbed in the game.

He agreed that he would certainly go outside in five minutes.

He was going to see his friend Fred who would probably love to see him.

Undoubtedly, mums are sometimes right.

Maybe he would try to get outside a bit more often.