

This week, we have been learning about words that contain adjacent consonants anywhere in the word.

Level 4

Top Tip

It can be harder to hear the individual letter sounds when consonants are next to each other in a word so focusing hearing, segmenting and blending words that contain adjacent consonants anywhere in the word helps children to develop those skills.

Word List

Read these words.

frog

gran

tent

nest

plum

dress

Can you add sound buttons to each word?

We have been learning to read the tricky words were, there, little and one.
